

Importing Personal Property Into SOUTH AFRICA

HOUSEHOLD GOODS AND PERSONAL EFFECTS

DUTY-FREE ENTRY IS PERMITTED IF THE FOLLOWING REQUIREMENTS ARE MET:

- The household goods/effects are used.
- The shipper has had possession of the goods for at least one year.
- Items considered inheritance or antique must be accompanied by the proper documentation.
- First time immigrants must possess a valid Permanent Residence Permit.
- Returning residents must have resided outside of South Africa for at least six consecutive months before they are entitled to duty-free importation of household goods purchased outside of South Africa. Customs requires the following documentation to prove that the shipper has resided outside of South Africa for at least 6 months and has established a temporary residence abroad during this time: passport pages with initial exit date stamp from South Africa with re-entry stamp; and an affidavit from shipper to South African Customs verifying stay abroad.
- Temporary residents must have a temporary work permit, valid for at least six months.

Required Documents:

- ✓ Original Ocean Bill of Lading
- ✓ Letter from employer verifying customer is moving to South Africa on contract
- ✓ Customs Form P 1.160 - in triplicate
- ✓ Customs Form D.A.304 - in triplicate
- ✓ Detailed, comprehensive inventory is required for clearance
- ✓ Original Passport
- ✓ Valid Residence Permit or Work Permit, as applicable
- ✓ Settler's Declaration Forms (in triplicate), completed upon arrival

Note: Shipper must be in South Africa at least 10 days before the goods arrive to attend to customs formalities for clearance. All documentation must be given to the agent at least 7 working days before the arrival of the vessel so he/she can pass it through customs to prevent the consignment from being bonded.

FOREIGN DIPLOMATS:

- Can import their household goods and personal effects, duty-free, into South Africa.

Required Documents:

- ✓ Diplomatic Customs Clearance Certificate A or B obtained by the shipper's Embassy from the South African Department of Foreign Affairs, Pretoria
- ✓ Bill of lading
- ✓ Packing List
