

Importing Personal Property into

URUGUAY

IMPORTING HOUSEHOLD GOODS AND PERSONAL EFFECTS

DUTY-FREE ENTRY IS PERMITTED IF THE FOLLOWING REQUIREMENTS ARE MET:

- The household goods and personal effects have been in the possession of the shipper for at least 2 years.
- The shipper has lived abroad for at least 2 years.
- The household goods and personal effects are not intended for resale.

Notes:

- Household and electrical appliances may also enter duty-free, but are restricted to one per kind in a household shipment. The only exception is television sets.
- Household goods and personal effects shipments or unaccompanied luggage must arrive within 90 days following the shipper's arrival in Uruguay.
- Foreigners must have permanent residency in Uruguay in order to qualify for customs clearance. If the shipper's residency status is being established, but it is not completed at the time of application for clearance, then the shipper must submit a bank guarantee letter before Uruguayan Customs.

- Tools must be normal household tools and declared as "domestic hand tools," to avoid confusion with specialized tools for professional or industrial use.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS:

For Uruguayan Citizens Returning Home:

- ✓ Certificate of Residence issued by Uruguayan Consulate at the country of origin stating the shipper has resided abroad for at least 2 years. Or, if originating from a Mercosur country (Argentina, Brazil and Paraguay), then the time requirement is 1 year.
- ✓ Itemized inventory/ packing list in Spanish legalized by the Uruguayan Consulate at country of origin.
- ✓ Updated identification card.
- ✓ Certificate of Migration Office obtained by shipper upon arrival in Uruguay. If shipper is coming from Mercosur country, then a stamp in the shipper's passport must be requested from the migration authorities at point of entry. If the stamp is not obtained, there will be a delay in receiving the Certificate of Migration.
